Happenings in and Around Bellevue

Alfred Lomax is working at Blairmore.

Nert Connolly, of Spring Creek, is visiting in the camp.

J. Jackson is confined to the house through illness.

Edward Drake, of the South Fork, was in the camp last week.

Jim Marshall is confined to the house with an attack of "grippe."

Mr. and Mrs. Quirk have moved up from Fernie and will locate here.

Mr. Simpson, of Frank, has been engaged as master mechanic with the Hillcrest Collieries.

Peter Radcliffe, Fred Padgett, and Luther Goodwin, visited Blairmore on Saturday night.

Mrs. J. B. Rudd has gone east to Lethbridge on a business trip, and will be absent a few days.

The St. Patrick's dance at Hillcrest on Monday night attracted a large number of Bellevue people.

Rev. Mr. Irwin will preach in the church next Sunday night upon the subject "The Remedy for the Troubled Conscience."

The Sketch Club were engaged to give a sketch at the sale of the Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church, Blairmore, on Wednesday evening.

William Jolly, of Frank, is working in the Bellevue mine, and is a splendid acquisition to the Bellevue band. He will move to town as soon as he can get a house.

An accident in the mine on Saturday resulted in a severe injury to one of the Belgians who have recently come to the camp. He will be laid up for some time as a result.

The boxing contest in the Socialist hall, on Monday evening, afforded much amusement and an exciting time for the spectators who crowded the house. The main bout between Grainger and Morris was a fine exhibition of strength and skill and after ten rounds resulted in a draw. The preliminary between Taylor and Burk was also good. James Burke retired as time keeper, Bob Levitt and Hughie Macdonald were judges, and Charlie Burrows was referee.

St. Patrick's day was fittingly observed by a social given in the Methodist church on Monday evening. The things dear to an Irish heart were much in evidence. Rev. W. T. Young, of Frank, a genuine son of old Ireland, greatly amused the audience with a volley of Irish ditties that flowed in such abundance that everybody was in constant laughter. Fred Padgett and Dave Hutton, of the Bellevue Sketch Club, gave a very interesting sketch, entitled "The Rival Lovers," and followed it by a duet, "You Cannot Stop Your Heart from beating for the Girl You Love." Mrs. Fred Wolstenholmes sang "Kilarny" very effectively, and Geo. Christie also rendered a pleasing solo. The Bellevue band again proved their ability by two Irish selections. The happy event closed with a supper in which roast potatoes and hot corned beef figured prominently.

Happenings in and Around Frank

Wm. Simpson started work in Blairmore on Monday night.

The girls' club of the church held an interesting social at the church last Wednesday night.

C. Burrows and family have moved to Bellevue where he and his son have got work in the mine.

Mr. and Mrs. McElisa who moved in town a few weeks ago, moved back to Lethbridge on Monday.

Things looked like old times in Frank on Saturday on account of it being pay day. Everybody was busy.

A large crowd from Bellevue and Hillcrest came up on the 7 o'clock train on Saturday and returned on the 9 o'clock.

Some who are still working here have moved their families to Blairmore: Messrs. Mike Murphy, Ed Doukin, Chas. Patmore and McDonald being among them.

W. J. Todd, of the Keystone Cement Co., was in town during the week and registered at the Rocky Mountain Sanatorium.

A meeting of all the ratepayers of the town was called by Chairman McGowan on Monday night, in the school hall. There was a good attendance.

Mr. Bonamica closed down his store on Saturday night. He just opened here after the settlement of the strike and has closed on account of the slide report.

A. A. Muller, president of the Keystone Portland Cement Co., is leaving Saturday for Brussels in the Company's interest, and will return the first part of May.

Those who attended the masquerade ball given in the opera house at Blairmore on Monday night report having had a most enjoyable time.

A large number of men from here attended the Morris-Grainger boxing contest at Bellevue on Monday night last, and report one of the cleanest exhibitions ever put on in the Pass.

If you have trouble in getting rid of your good you may know that you are not treating it properly. There is no reason why a good should hang on for weeks and it will not if you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by all dealers.

Annual Masquerade

The masquerade ball given in the Blairmore opera house on Monday, was one of the most enjoyable and successful events in Blairmore's history, about 180 people took part in the masquerade, and some 50 or 100 occupied view stations on the balcony. Dancing commenced at 9:30 to the strains of Professor Crawford's orchestra, and the "curious looking creatures" rattled over the spacious floor, no one knowing who's who, until 11:30, when all suppositions were met with disappointments, and surprises. Luncheon was served at 1 a.m. To give a description of the different costumes would take up more space than we can this week afford, but altogether there were fancies, especially among the ladies, some of whom brought very prominent the colors of Ireland's national emblem, and some of the gentlemen pledged themselves to represent the "Land of Bobby Burns." The committee in charge deserve great praise for the successful termination of the affair. Among those present were quite a number from all parts between Lethbridge and Fernie, all of whom speak glowingly of the treatment accorded them by the Blairmore folks.

BOWSER'S STRAW

Only Clerk Sells Him a Good-Enough Panama Block.

FLATTERY DOES THE TRICK.

Pays Top Price and Then Lies About It to His Wife—Exchanges at Barber Shop Cause a Whole Lot of Trouble. Another Exchange at Midnight Makes Matters Straight.

By M. QUAD.
(Copyright, 1914, by Associated Literary Press.)

WHEN Mr. Bowser went to buy a straw hat he intended to travel just $2. He had said to Mrs. Bowser that the man who sold him that straw hat was a real one. When he reached the store and asked for a two dollar hat the salesman looked at him in a puzzled way and then cried:

"It is for your choffer, I suppose? Yes, a two dollar hat is good enough for him. Resistor, why don't you buy one for yourself at the same time?"

Taken for a senator right off the red—light for a capitalist who could afford an auto and a chauffeur, a man to whom a few dollars was nothing.

Mr. Bowser was flattered. He wouldn't have been human otherwise, especially when the salesman counted out the money.

"I can give you a duplicate of President Taft's Panama. This way, please."

"Just in the morning, senator, and I don't want them picked over before you get your choffer. He'll be here. Here, style, wear and dignity. When you see a man wearing one of these hats you can tell he's a senator. Aren't they any more today?"

"Well, hell, a dozen ought to do you. Thump in Wall street looking up a bit? They say that all you senators keep."

"Yes, we do."

"Here's the mate to Taft's Panama, made of the same model. We asked him $20 for his because Uncle Sam has to pay the bill, but in your case it's $25. Examine it. Feel of it. Let

Mr. Bowser, flattered, said, "I'll take it." He put it on his head, Resistor, you never had anything like this before."

"I thought of something a little cheaper," said Mr. Bowser.

"About twenty dollars, good as Taft. You want something above the common herd. Look in the glass again. Just your fit, and you don't have a shade of dignity."

Chuckles at His Bargain.

Mr. Bowser thought of what he had said about the reckless idiot, but he also felt that he was cunning. He had been mistaken for a senator who had said that and speculated in Wall street, and he hated to let himself down. As a result, he took the hat.

When he reached home and met Mrs. Bowser's accusing eye, he said:

"Friend of mine introduced me to the hatter, and I put this for $4. I think it's a bargain."

"But did you pay $4 for a hat when you know I didn't give to pay on my husband's hat? It was rather dragged into it, but it looks like a pretty good deal. You shall have some in money next week."

Mr. Bowser walked around under that Panama hat, and he paid the price at $25. He called attention to it. He felt a warm glow when he saw the street car conductor looking at it. He gave it a rattle about on his head and felt to play other men. As he came in to dinner the other evening Mrs. Bowser was not at home to notice the change of late. It was not until the meal had been finished and they had come up the stairs and reached to sit on the front steps that she noticed at the hall tree the dining room.

"What, Mr. Bowser, have you been trading hats?"

"What do you mean?"

"Why, isn't that your four dollar hat. This one never cost you that of that."

"The jumping jacks" he shouted as he grabbed for the hat.

"Of course I lost."

"I must have been some caller at that."

"It was, it'll be a hundred dollars to find out that it was that idiot who had crept on his hair and snuggled

"What if he said a mistake you can't imagine him."

A Loud Smelling Discovery.

"Telephone number. I saw him looking at my hat, and I know he changed on purpose. I don't know where he is now. I never heard of his before. He called to me if I was interested in astronomy. My husband, I'll put him there when he can't see stars or planets for the rest of his life."

"I hope you got your hat back," said Mrs. Bowser, "but don't get too excited about it. Yours cost $4, you know."

"Four dollars? Four dollars? Why I paid you $25 for that hat!"

"You told me $4. You said a friend introduced you to the hat man, and—"

"I said $4 was abundant. Twenty-five big dollars, and that average halved astronomer has got it!"

"Well, what are you going to do about it?"

"Do? Do? Why, I'll follow on his trail for the next 100 years. I'll never let up until I get the details in my regard to the police. I'll advertise a reward for him. My twenty-five dollars is up to you."

"When you told me was a bargain for $4."

Mr. Bowser rushed into the telephone and called up police headquarters and stated his case. After he had given two minutes in giving details he hung up.

"Very sorry, but we are not the street law police. Inquire near the station."

Then he rushed out to the policeman in the station. The latter went to the telephone and waited for the call. He came back without being affected. On the contrary, he calmly said:

"The fact is full of just such harrowing things, but we must make the best of them. I rather like the smell of a rush was made for home, and with a wild hope in his heart. Mr. Bowser, what are you going to do about it?"

"Look here, Mrs. Bowser, I am not going to threaten you."

"I am going to coax you. You may have slipped this old hat on to the police, but you can't slip it off. If you will take it as a joke, Ha, ha, ha, it would be quite a little joke."

"This is the hat you were home and hang up."

"I'll give you the professor's wife. I'll double my hands in his winter-green. I'll catch him by the throat, and I'll twist his brains back."

Mr. Bowser, but his Lie Blends. All the rest of the evening Mrs. Bowser tried to quiet and console him, but she failed. She even went to the door and asked the policeman. He walked the door and planned how to get the hat back. He even went to the door and asked the policeman. He walked the door and planned how to get the hat back.

"You stop right where you be!"

"Why should I stop?" thundered the great Carthaginian as his mouth was almost as big as his head.

"You're exceeding the speed limit," replied the man with the star. "If you're a duty appointed constable, I'll back you."

It wasn't so overbearing by this amazing holdup that he tossed a bag of exorcism to the officer and, laughing hysterically, rode away.

Later on, however, his indignation against his sense of humor, and he decided to stand the line of the Roman emperor and their picked veterans, forcing the fighting to the very front of the shouting Roman—thunder!

A Continuation.

A story is told of a dancer in a Danish church who was given to use wild harangues on whatever subject was up for discussion. At a meeting of the church board he was given the having the dance in mind, a rule was adopted that no one was to be allowed to discuss the dance.

He was observed with the dance. His five minutes were consumed in politeness (presumably that he was not to be allowed).

The chairman informed him that his speech was too long and that he must stop.

"Am I to understand," he said, "that my five minutes have expired?"

"Yes, indeed," said the pastor, and the audience uttered a low murmur.

"I will throw the rest of my five minutes in the form of a prayer," said the dancer.

WHERE SHE LOST OUT.

There was once a beautiful young thing who said that the man who was to be her husband was the best she had ever known. To her came the first sorrow, who said:

"I love you because you have such beautiful hair. I love you because you are so sweet. I love you because you are so kind. I love you because you are so good."

"I love you because you have such lovely teeth," declared a third sister. "They are false," she snarled, disliking them, and the third sister went away discontented.

"I love you because you have a perfect complexion," vowed the fourth sister.

OCEAN TELEPHONING.

Talks Across the Sea May Be a Near Future Possibility.

Transatlantic communication by telephone is a promise of the near future. The cable now laid between Dover and Cape Gris Nez, to increase the facility of telegraphic communication between France and England, will also be used for telephoning.

It is of the difficulty to be overcome in making service across the Atlantic ocean will be removed. We already send the sound of human speech across the water for merely long distances. England talks with France and Belgium. Telephonic communication over the ocean and islands off the coast is in common use.

It is not conceivable that ocean telephoning will ever be cheap. To talk between Europe and America will be an expensive luxury, but there will be the time when the opportunity to do so will be easily within the grasp of the masses.

Steady Exodus*From the States

Wainwright, Alta.—From information now being received in this district it is indicated that hundreds of American farmers are preparing to come to Alberta in the spring, and that the influx of settlers will likely commence even earlier than last year. The exodus from such States as Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas promises to be especially heavy. As Mrs. M. Jones, Iowa, as it is noted, leading men of the State, alarmed on account of the poor harvest made by Iowa in the recent season, are planning an extensive campaign, with a view to checking the exodus, as under present conditions Iowa is faced with stagnation and loss of influence in National affairs. "The Great West," reports George Brand of Kansas, "the one country that is being looked to by the Canadian West; hundreds of people from Kansas are coming to Alberta this summer."

Winnipeg, March 18.—Interest in the subject of reckless subdivision speculation continues to grow keener as the significance of the matter is being pointed out by reputable dealers and by the press. The current issue of Winnipeg Once-A-Week contains an impressive write up along this line. The first detailed account to be published in Canada of the notorious fruit lands wrangle known as the Columbia River Orchard company of Seattle, State of Washington, now facing bankruptcy proceedings, and criminal prosecution in United States Courts. The company mentioned carried on a lurid advertising campaign throughout Western Canada, flooding land users of several millions and guaranteeing its patrons profitable orchard lands and irrigated farms. Many of the victims are said to be living in Winnipeg. To make this species of fraud impossible in Canada and to put so-called land wolves and subdivision sharks out of business entirely, is the avowed purpose of legislation now under consideration with municipal and provincial governments throughout the West. From Edmonton, Regina, Moose Jaw and other leading cities of Western Canada word comes that drastic regulation of the land trust is now to be put in force by legal enactment. "Excessive inquiry" into Winnipeg indicates that presently real estate men here are in full accord with the opinion recently expressed by a Toronto investigator, who stated: "To smash these rascals in business and to prevent the goodwill of the promising country from being dissipated is the purpose of the Edmonton resolution." If similar resolutions were passed all over the country, a very great evil would be brought within measurable distance of complete eradication, to the lasting benefit of Canada. Meanwhile the demand for gilt-edge properties continues exceedingly strong, both in Winnipeg and suburban sections.

New Settlers Pour In

Ottawa, March 16.—During the 11 months from April 1st to March 31st of the current fiscal year 31,846 immigrants arrived in Canada. Of this number 191,383 arrived at ocean ports and 117,458 from the United States. These figures show an increase of 18 per cent, as compared with those of the corresponding months of last fiscal year which were 161,485 at ocean ports and 10,996 from the United States, making a total for the eleven months, April 1st to March 31st, of the previous fiscal year, of 271,382.

During the month of February of this year, there came 11,141 arrivals, 5,989 of them having come at ocean ports and 5,152 from the United States, as against 10,705 for February last year, 5,816 of whom were at ocean ports and 4,889 from the United States.

The Man Who Delivers The Goods

There's a man in the world who is never turned down, wherever he chances to stray; he gets the glad hand in the populous town or out where the farmers make hay; he's greeted with pleasure in closets of suit and dress in the aisles of the woods; wherever he goes there's the welcoming hand—'he's The Man Who Delivers the Goods. The failure of life is found, and complaint the gods haven't treated them while they've lost their umbrellas whenever there's rain; and they haven't their lanterns at night; men live of the helpings who fill with their sighs the air of their own neighborhoods; there's the man who is greeted with love lighted eyes—'he's The Man Who Delivers the Goods. One fellow is late one watches the clock, and waits for the whistle to blow; one has a banner, with which he will knock and one tells the story of war, and one, if requested to travel a mile, will measure the paces and roods; but one does his duty with a whistle or smile—'he's The Man Who Delivers the Goods. One man is afraid he'll fall too hard—the world isn't yearning for such; and one man is ever alert, on his guard lest he put in a minute too much; and one has a cough or a temper that's bad, and one is a creature of moods, so he's here for the joyous and rollicking ad—for the One Who Delivers the Goods.—Walt Mason.

Murder Trial Is Set For April 6

The case of M. Jasbee and E. Ed. Ed. two Austrains charged with the murder of Constable Wilnot at Frank in 1908, and which was set to come up for a hearing before the supreme court at Macleod on February 6, will begin there on April 6. The case will be a sensational one and it is expected that a large number of witnesses will attend the trial from Lethbridge.

John R. Palmer will appear on behalf of Jasbee, who is a member of the miner's union, which organization has retained Palmer.

The preliminary hearing was held at Macleod about the middle of November last at which time both men were held over to the supreme court of S. P. C. of the Mounted Police. It is understood, here that considerable new testimony has been discovered by the Mounted Police that did not appear at the time of the preliminary.

Constable Wilnot, the murdered man, who was attached to the Macleod division of the Mounted Police was instantly killed while he was in discharge of his duties and nearly four years have elapsed since the crime, and has stated on the best of authority that evidence of a sensational nature will be given when the case is called for trial.

W. C. T. U. and Band of Hope Entertainment

This was given in the Central Baptist church on Friday evening last, and was every way a success and a credit to the children and to the president of the Band of Hope, Miss A. Green, who trained the children in reciting, etc., and also gave a recitation herself in excellent style. Mrs. Wilkinson, Misses Edie Beard and Lillian Thomas, and Messrs. Purrie and E. Thomas also contributed to the success of the entertainment, the violin selections by the latter gentlemen being exceedingly well received. Refreshments were served at the close, and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

A RARE OPPORTUNITY FOR LIVE INVESTORS

Lake City

In the name of the Western Terminal Point of the proposed Crow's Nest Pass Electric Railway and is already tapped by the Pass line of the C. P. R., while the G. N. R. has already approached to within a few score of miles and must eventually pass through this admirably located town.

Lake City

Is located by the shore of Crow's Nest Lake, only a few miles east of the provincial boundary between Alberta and British Columbia, and just north of the international line. In reality, it is at the top of Canada where the majestic Rockies tower in serene magnificence over great chasms and numerous fords, reflecting their presence on the waters of this beautiful lake. Here also are afforded the very best tasks for the daring mountain climber and for huntsman who desires to outlive the quiet ways of the Rocky Mountain goat, sheep, deer or elk, which are the monarchy thereon. In close proximity are numerous timber, mineral and fuel resources, development of which is now in its initial stages. These resources include gold, quartz, coal, iron and pulp wood.

Crow's Nest Lake has long been looked upon with promise as an admirable location for health and tourist resorts, and but now this promise is being realized. Plans for hotels, etc., are being arranged, as well as boat houses, and the most modern pleasure yachts will soon glide over the surface of this beautiful lake.

But a few weeks ago lots were placed on the market, and the agents have had their hands full attending to purchasers. Prices run from $150 up. For further particulars apply to the agents:

Annual Meeting of Board of Trade

The second annual meeting of the Blairmore Board of Trade took place in the council chamber on Friday night last. There were present, R. W. Coulthard, president; W. A. Beebe, vice-president; T. B. George, secretary-treasurer; J. A. McDonald, D. A. Sinclair, R. M. Brisco, John R. Smith, J. G. Smith, W. Simpson, R. Green, D. C. Drain, L. Dutil, W. J. Bartlett.

Minutes of previous meeting were read and adopted.

Messrs. H. H. Tait, C. J. Pegg, J. Graham, H. G. Bigelow and L. H. Putnam were proposed and forthwith elected members of the board.

President, D. A. Sinclair.

Vice-President, W. A. Beebe (re-elected).

Sec. Vice-President, R. Green.

Secretary-Treasurer, T. B. George (re-elected).

Executive Committee: H. E. Lyon, R. M. Brisco, John R. Smith, W. J. Bartlett, L. Dutil, J. G. Smith and J. Menard.

Auditors, W. A. Beebe and L. Dutil.

The Board were unanimous that R. W. Coulthard should retain the position of president of the Board for a third year; but Mr. Coulthard declined, giving as his reason that he failed to see how it was possible for him to fill such a position another year and to justice to the Board. Mr. Coulthard made a few very appropriate remarks, outlining the great future possibilities of the town of Blairmore and the important field in which the Board of Trade was working.

He claimed that it was an established fact that Blairmore is to be the city of The Pass. Around us we had resources such as no other town in the province had, the development of which was a veritable bonanza profit from the earth. On all sides today these resources were being met by capital and the interest taken in these resources today was but a minor step towards the great industries of the future. Among others, Mr. Coulthard mentioned the proposed Pass Electric Railway, which to some is looked upon as but a huge joke, but which he impressed upon the Board, as an interested party, would be an established fact in the side of two years and would assist materially in bringing together the great returns of the ten great coal mines and other vast industries of the Crow's Nest Pass. He left safe in saying also that inside of three years the Canadian Pacific would not be the only steam railway operating through this Pass. Other railways were directed this way and eventually must come. He desired that the Board give every new industrial proposition their best inducements.

Since Mr. Coulthard has been residing in Blairmore he has always taken a keen interest in the town and as President of the Board of Trade has always exercised a great interest in every movement that would mature to the town's welfare. He also believed that his successors at the head of the West Canadian development, would continue to carry out the principles inculcated under his management—at all times and in all places, at home or abroad, ever to put in a good word for this town and seek to advance its interests.

A communication from Dr. D. Warnock, M.P., Ottawa, was read and ordered filed.

Another communication was received from L. F. Clarry, deputy attorney general, replying to the recent request of the Board that the department make enquiry into certain crimes committed in Blairmore during the time of the recent strike.

The Board felt that the department would not fail to see that said matter would be probed to the bottom and that the justice parties would be brought to guilty and made an example of.

The secretary was asked to reply to both the communications received from the deputy attorney general, and urge a continuance of the investigation.

A communication from the Scarborough Company re census returns was read, and secretary was requested to forward them copy of message received from Ottawa re the correct population of Blairmore.

John F. Sweeting, of the Winnipeg Industrial Department, was asked to inform the Board of the correct population of Blairmore.

The matter of reduction of fire insurance rates came up, and the secretary was asked to write to the insurance underwriters, asking the number of hydrants, pressure, apparatus, distance between hydrants, etc., necessary to secure such reduction.

Smith—Brisco—That Board of Trade and council recommended to the town council for the immediate erection of a fire district. Also that council have present light system wiring inspected.—Carried.

Mr. J. G. Smith informed the Board that the Keystone Cement that the Company's proposed route of air line, or tram line, had been put before the council, and he would like to have the opinion of the Board in connection therewith. The plan calls for line, crossing diagonally several blocks and lots belonging to private parties. The property involved in this line would take some $15,000 to compensate, and the Keystone Cement Co. desired that the town assume liability and pay such amount, the Company offering to give considerable sum for the town to meet such payment. The majority of the Board, while desirous of giving every possible inducement to the new company, felt that the town was not in a position, financially, at the present time, to assume such obligation.

Messrs. R. M. Brisco and J. G. Smith were appointed a delegation to visit upon the directors of the Keystone Cement Co.

Blairmore Council Hold Special Meet

The adjourned meeting of the Blairmore council, to continue the reading of certain by-laws and other unfinished business, was called Wednesday night, Mayor Lyons, and Councillors Dutil, Chestnut, Sinclair, McLeod and Smith being present.

Several communications and accounts were read and ordered to lay over for the next general meeting.

A letter from the president of the Keystone Cement Co., asking for an assessment of $10,000 on all buildings and property of the company, was read, and it was ordered that the secretary-treasurer write in reply, stating that the council would be pleased to consider their proposition when the company had decided as to just where they would locate and present the council with a statement of plans for their guidance.

Councillor Smith brought to the notice of the council that an electric light pole at the corner of Eighth avenue and Victoria street was in a falling position, and should be attended to at once.

The question of light service inspection came up for discussion, and chairman of light committee was asked to report into the matter and to see to the council at the next meeting.

Councillor McLeod stated that considerable dissatisfaction reigned over the appointment of the chief of police as license inspector.

Sinclair-Smith—That secretary write the attorney general, ascertaining what steps should be taken to have certain buildings and other obstructions removed, and which the owners objected to have interfered with, and to explain in detail facts in connection with the McLeod building. Carried.

The council entered into discussion over the proposed establishment of the Keystone Cement Company in town. Some of the councillors and others present were objectionable to the idea of granting a bonus to insure the establishment of the new industry here, while others favored such a movement. The different aldermen expressed their pros and cons, everyone desiring that every possible effort to further encourage the new company be put forth. The meeting closed at 10.30.

"Disturbance Chinese"

The Celestial community was raided by the police last night and a number of gamblers and opium smokers were arrested and placed behind the bars of the Blairmore barracks, where on Thursday afternoon they were tried by Justice Graham and Belcher. Lee Tuck and Long Tuck, occupied rooms in the cage over last Wednesday, while the other birds drowned the whispers of the guardian police. As the court adjourned till later in the afternoon, we were unable to give the court's decision. Among their musical nom de plumes appeared the following: Wong Fu, Lee Wong, Wong Ing, Wong Sio, Jon Kee, Linga, Lee, Si Kien, Lee, Linga. A quantity of opium was found on the premises and confiscated.

Increase for R.N.W.M.P.

Ottawa, March 16.—Owing to the difficulties experienced in getting proper recruits for the R.N.W.M.P., and the necessity of maintaining the present standard of the force, it is understood that the government has decided to increase the pay from 20 to 25 cents per day, and to reduce the term of service from five to three years. It is believed that the proposed conditions will have a beneficial effect on the force. There will be a corresponding increase for the officers of the force.

Dr. Connelly, who has had headquarters at Blairmore for several months, moved to Coleman on Thursday, where he will practice in full.
